

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Blaue Vase in Schlegelform Museum: Glasmuseum Hentrich,KunstpalastEhrenhof 4-540479 Düsseldorf+49 211 56642-100info@smkp.de Collection: Indien und China Inventory number: P 1965-419 |
|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Glockenförmiger Körper, langer zylindrischer Hals, ringförmige Lippe.

Basic data

|                     |                                                           |
|---------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Königsblaues Glas, modelgeblasen; Boden plan geschliffen. |
| Measurements:       | (H x D): 19,8 x 10,6 cm                                   |

Events

|         |       |                            |
|---------|-------|----------------------------|
| Created | When  | 17.-18. century            |
|         | Who   |                            |
|         | Where | People's Republic of China |